

Alameda Decision Ad Hoc Committee

An Ad Hoc Committee of the Board of Retirement has been established to conduct an in-depth review of any earnings codes meriting further consideration. The Ad Hoc Committee is an advisory committee; decision authority rests with the full Board. The public is invited to comment when this topic is brought before the full Board. It is expected that if the Board adopts any discretionary changes to the retirement eligibility of earnings codes, the changes would be effective prospectively.

Alameda Decision Ad Hoc Committee Members

Chanda Bassett, Chair

Jennifer Goodman

Margo Praus

Any comments or questions for the committee can be emailed to contactus@sjcera.org, with the subject line: Alameda Decision Committee